I have lived in Geraldton for 8 years, I am a school bus driver and the resident Santa at Northgate. I am a voluntary board member with Midwest Community Living Association and a member of Marine Rescue Geraldton. I was the principal petitioner for the recent Midwest Aeromedical Rescue Helicopter. My extensive volunteer service includes Hedland SES, Victorian Trustee for Australian Lions Children's Mobility Foundation, Lions Club of Melton, Founding Chairman of Friends of the Melton Botanic Garden. I have received the Centenary of Federation Medal and the National Medal for my volunteer activities and was the 2006 City of Melton citizen of the Year. I consider the following to be important issues for Geraldton; improving access and inclusion for all abilities, improving road safety around schools, maintaining healthy beaches and waterways and Parks and Streetscape Master Plan.
