Message from our Mayor
Jerry Clune

Young people are an important part of our community. It is vital that we encourage, foster and recognise their leadership and strengths, now and into the future. The City of Greater Geraldton (the City) is proud to release the new Youth Strategy 2024-29. The strategy will guide and direct how the City delivers services, builds infrastructure and advocates on behalf of young people over the next five years. The strategy aligns with the Greater Geraldton Strategic Community Plan 2031 and the City’s aspiration to create a vibrant community with engaged young people.

Supporting our young people will continue to be a top priority for the City and this strategy provides direction based on engagement and feedback from people aged 12-25 years. To meet the needs of young people now and into the future. It is important we have a tangible and meaningful strategy to guide us. I am proud that this document is a result of a comprehensive consultation process which engaged young people across Greater Geraldton.

It goes without saying “it takes a village to raise a child”, and we are grateful to continue to work alongside many community stakeholders, service providers and other organisations to deliver the priority areas of this strategy.

We truly hope the City can provide bright opportunities for young people, the leaders of tomorrow, and see them continue to be change makers in our wonderful community.

Jerry Clune

Introduction

Greater Geraldton is the home of the regional capital city in Western Australia. Vibrant public places and spaces support our enviable lifestyle. We will be a recognised leader in the protection of our natural environment and our people will thrive and prosper. We will celebrate our cultural heritage and history. We support business growth through industry diversification, education and employment opportunities. As an inclusive community, we will strive for equal rights and access for all. We will face challenges by working together in unity with integrity and creativity. We will achieve this on the foundation of open and collaborative leadership.

The City of Greater Geraldton's Youth Strategy 2024-29 aims to create a vibrant, inclusive, and safe community where young people are valued, engaged, and empowered to actively participate in shaping their future. This strategy outlines the four key goals and objectives that will be undertaken to address the unique needs and aspirations of our youth population. Through collaboration with young people, community stakeholders, and relevant organizations, we seek to foster an environment that supports personal growth, education, employment, mental health, social integration, and active citizenship.

The youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow, and it is crucial that we invest in their development and empower them to contribute positively to society. A youth strategy is a comprehensive approach that aims to address the needs and aspirations of young people and ensure that they have the necessary support and opportunities to thrive.

The challenges facing young people today are numerous and complex, including issues such as employment, access to education, mental health, social exclusion, and the impact of climate change. These challenges require a coordinated and holistic response that considers the diverse needs and experiences of young people.

The goal of a youth strategy is to create a society in which all young people can reach their full potential and contribute to building a better future for themselves and their communities. This requires a long-term and sustainable approach that prioritizes investments in education, employment, health, and social protection, while also addressing the underlying systemic issues that perpetuate inequality and exclusion.

In this context, a youth strategy is not only an investment in the future, but also a recognition of the invaluable contributions that young people make to our societies today. By supporting and empowering young people, we can build a more inclusive, equitable, and sustainable world for all.

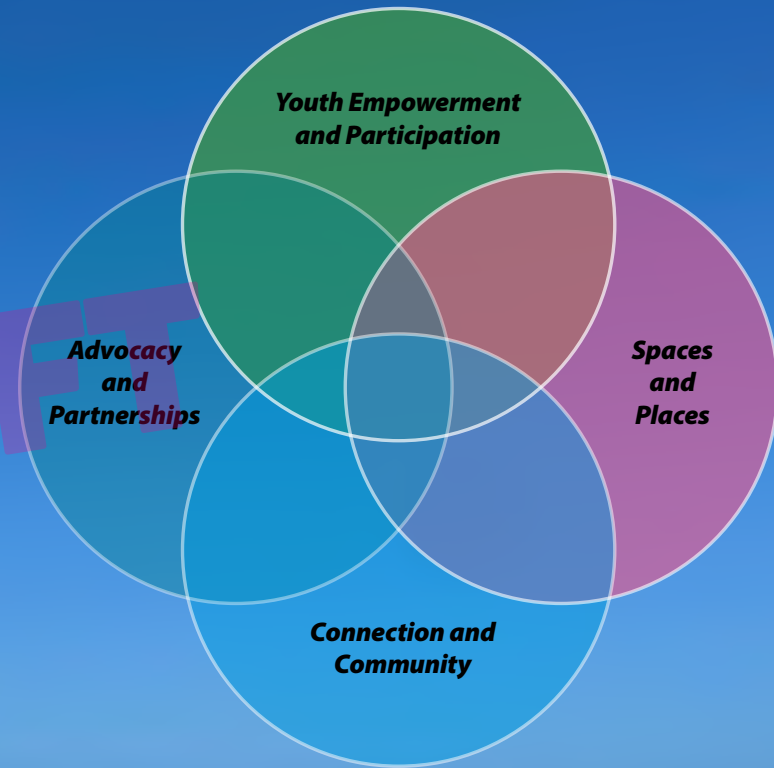

VISION

Young people in Greater Geraldton feel proud of and connected to their community. A place where young people feel safe, can contribute, and reach their full potential, and are supported to achieve their aspirations.

STRATEGIC AREAS

OBJECTIVE

This strategy aligns with the City of Greater Geraldton's Council Policy 1.2 Youth and the Geraldton Strategic Community Plan 2031. The strategy will guide Council direction and resource allocation over the next five years. The strategy is informed by comprehensive engagement with young people aged 12-25 years living in Greater Geraldton. The strategy will inform how the City engages with young people.

The role of Council

The City of Greater Geraldton Council takes a lead role in the implementation of this Plan however; we do not do this on our own. Responsibility for achieving our long-term goals rests with all levels of government, businesses, industry groups, community organisations and individuals.

Key to Council's role is listening to our community and understanding its desired level of service and demand for key facilities and programs and balancing expectations with what the community is prepared to pay for.

LEADER

We understand the community's aspirations and challenges. We plan and provide direction through policy and best practice.

PROVIDER

We provide a range of infrastructure, services, facilities and programs that meet the needs of the community.

COLLABORATER

We support and collaborate with the community, private sector and government at all levels to deliver tangible benefits to the community.

PLANNER

We use our professional expertise to undertake research, provide information, and in consultation with stakeholders, develop pathways to achieve our aspirations, and resolve identified issues. We will undertake this work from a whole of community perspective.

CAPACITY BUILDER

We work with community groups and government agencies to meet local needs. We assist community groups to obtain the necessary resources through partnerships with other agencies.

ADVOCATE

We are the voice of the community. We advocate for the best possible outcomes for our community.

Youth Statistics

Engagement

The City conducted the Youth Strategy Survey from 2 November to 4 December 2023.

The survey was promoted in a media release, a social media campaign on Facebook and Instagram and advertisements in the Geraldton Guardian. A dedicated website page with links to the online survey and information on the availability of paper surveys at the City Civic Centre. The City's Youth Team also visited the high schools, Central Regional TAFE and the Geraldton Universities Centre where they directly engaged with students. School leaders also shared the opportunity for young people to have their say with students. The City received 298 responses, all of which were online.

Summary

The majority of respondents were students aged 12-15 years old and have unlimited access to the internet at home.

Most respondents enjoy living in Geraldton, feel connected to and proud to be part of their community and felt growing up in Geraldton was a great experience.

About a third of respondents said they saw themselves still living in Geraldton in five years' time with the top reasons for leaving being the lack of work opportunities in Geraldton, studying, wanting to travel and experience new things and there not being enough for young people to do in the City.

Although most respondents rated the City as good/really good in terms of things to do and places to go, two thirds also said the lack of places to go and things to do was a top issue for them. The top recreational activities they said they want more of include shops, restaurants, events, and sports.

Transportation is an issue for the majority of respondents with just over half of respondents stating although they are able to use public transport to go to and from study and/or work only a third of them use it. Just over half said their parents or carers drive them.

The majority of respondents are planning on attending university outside of Geraldton but acknowledged they aren't confident about leaving the City and understand it may be difficult.

Although the majority of respondents said they were optimistic about their own futures, just over a third were optimistic about the future of the planet and only half said mental health services were easily accessible in the City.

The top issues facing young people are the use of drugs and alcohol by their peers, not feeling safe which includes being bullied and lack of job and study opportunities in the City.

The majority of respondents said their ideas and concerns were not being represented in decision making and the reasons why were that young people aren't listened to, evidenced in lack of effort to make the City more appealing for them, they didn't know how to have a say and they had no formal representation such as a Youth Council. The things they want to be consulted on the most include events and facilities.

Social media was the preferred communication tool with the majority using Snapchat, Instagram and TikTok.

The top suggestions on how to make the City a better place for youth were to engage with them, provide more places to go, things to do and activities and to improve safety/reduce crime.

City of Greater Geraldton YOUTH SERVICES

Geraldton Youth Centre

In 2022 the City purchased a vacant building at Pass Steet, Wonthella, for the purpose of delivering a multiservice youth hub. The strategic decision was based on community and stakeholder consultation that highlighted the need for a youth hub, and young people's need to have places to go and things to do. The Geraldton Youth Centre project is separated into three stages: short, medium, and long term. The short-term focuses on the activation of the current space. The medium and long-term plans for the centre are dependant on the outcomes of external funding applications and future Budget allocations.

Mullewa Youth Centre

The City operates the Mullewa Youth Centre with funding provided by the Department of Communities. The centre runs diversionary and recreational services and provides ongoing support for young people in the Mullewa community. The centre is well equipped with an outdoor basketball court, skate park and internal recreation space.

Youth Events

The City facilitates key youth events throughout the year. These events are driven by young people, external organisations, availability of funding and other opportunities. Youth events experience a life cycle which often changes in line with young people's interests and current trends. Therefore, event delivery should evolve and respond accordingly. Current events include:

- Battle of the Bands: an intergeneration music competition at the Queens Park Theatre
- Revolve Skate: a youth culture event at the Wonthella Skate Park
- A Day in the Lane Way: a youth market during national youth week highlighting young people and youth entrepreneurship.

Diversionary Program

The City monitors youth crime trends and can develop and implement initiatives that combat factors leading to youth offending. These projects have relied on Department of Justice and/or WA Police funding. Previous successful projects included:

- U-Turn Project

- Films on the Foreshore
- Sundays by the Sea
- School Holiday Programs
- National Youth week events

Strategic Community Plan

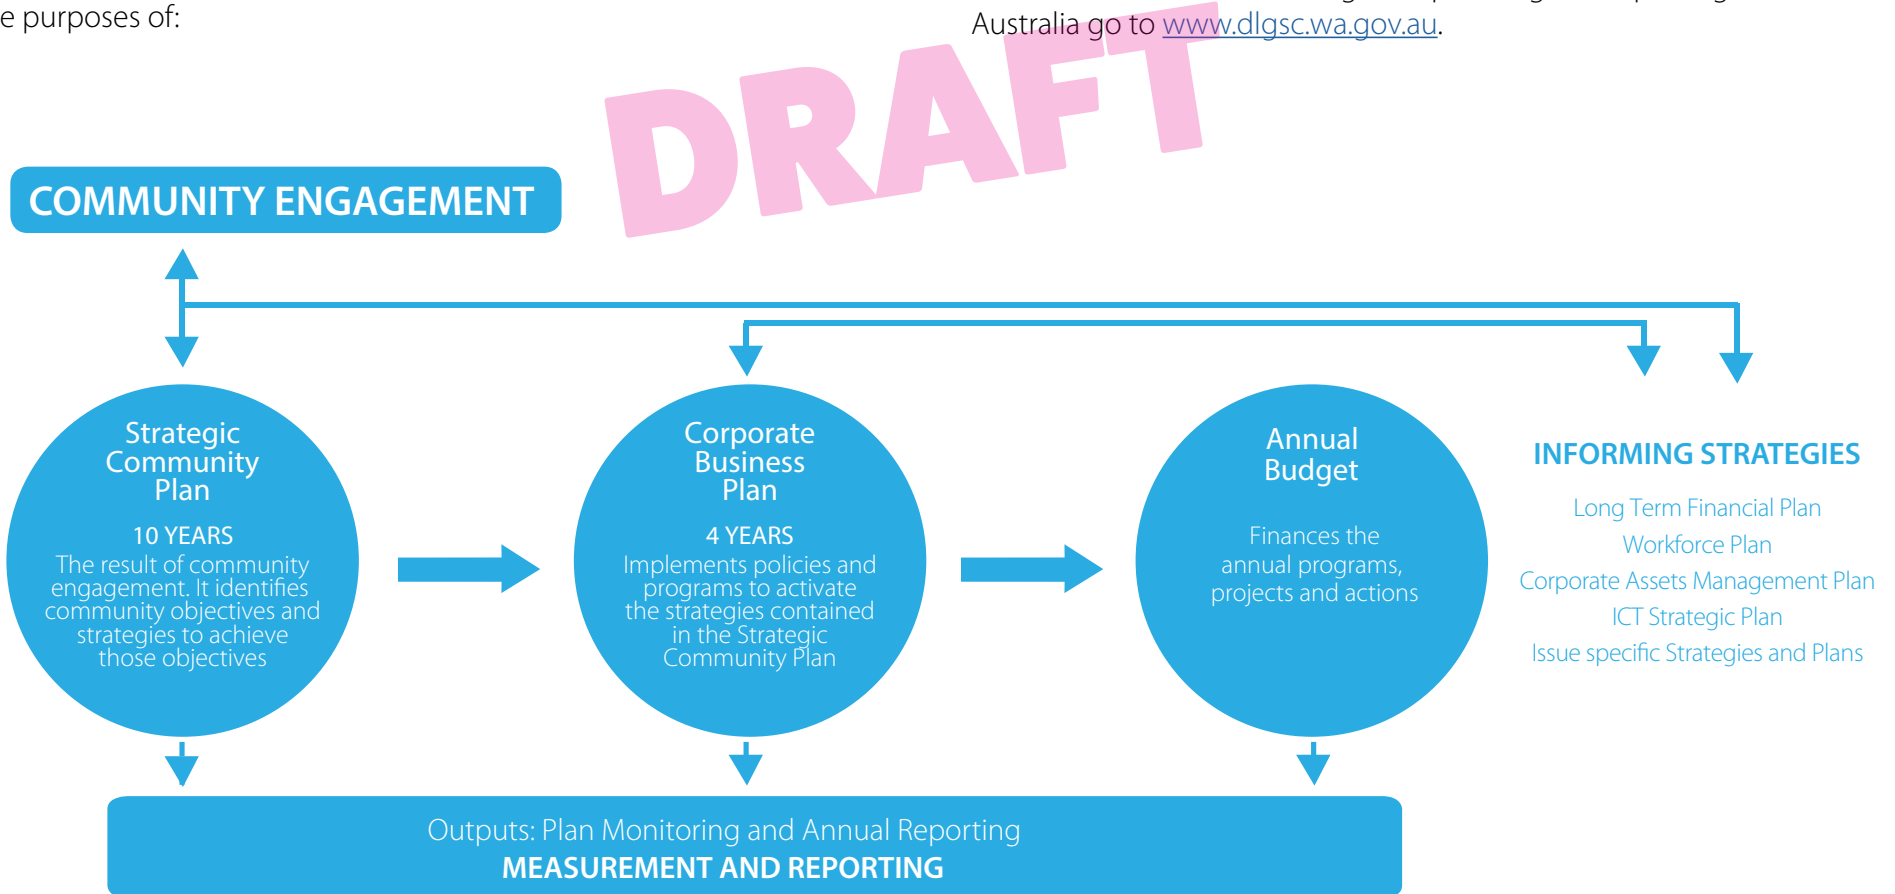

Greater Geraldton 2031 Strategic Community Plan (SCP) is a shared vision that draws on the wisdom of our community. It outlines our community's vision and aspirations for the next 10 years. This plan underpins everything we do at the City of Greater Geraldton by informing our actions over the next 10 years .

The SCP represents the highest level of strategic planning undertaken by local governments. It is legislatively required as part of the Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework under the Local Government Act 1995 for the purposes of:

- Ensuring the community is involved in the setting of a long-term vision;
- Providing Council with a clear understanding of the community's well-being priorities, aspirations, needs and wants; and
- Guiding the priority setting within the City's Corporate Business Plan.

The diagram below explains where this SCP fits into the Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework.

Strategic areas

STRATEGY ONE Empowerment and Participation

The City understands the importance of young people participating in decision making processes. The City will support organisations to establish and run youth advisory groups and understands that this opportunity supports the development of future community leaders. As part of this the City will continue to support the delivery of youth leadership training and provide opportunities for young people to engage with the City. The City will continue to play a mentoring role with young people to develop their leadership skills within its two youth centres in Mullewa and Geraldton.

STRATEGY TWO Spaces and Places

A city vibrant with events and activities was a common theme throughout the engagement, and at a national level concern for the natural environment and conservation is important to young people. The City will commit to engaging with young people on environmental concerns and commit to a leadership role in environmental conservation projects. Whilst the City is not able to directly deliver commercial ventures such as some of those identified for potential delivery at the new youth centre, it has heard the voices of young people in the community. The youth centre in Geraldton demonstrates a commitment by the City to young people. It will provide a hub for young people to meet and participate in activities outside of school. The City will continue delivering youth events and youth celebrations during the year such as Revolve Skate, Battle of the Bands and A Day in the Lane Way. The City has a role to play in ensuring at-risk young people who are street present have places and programs to attend such as Late Night Basketball. The City acknowledges other organisations and service providers may be better placed to deliver programs in this space and will support them in doing so.

STRATEGY THREE Connection and Community

Healthy resilient young people are the hallmark of a diverse, thriving and inclusive community. The City is committed to delivering and supporting community and youth wellbeing programs that focus on social inclusion and participation such as Game On, Sunset Yoga and School Holiday programs. The City has a role to play in the sport and recreational space, providing sporting facilities and public swimming pools. The City also has a role to play in ensuring that young people from all walks of life have the opportunity to reach their full potential therefore cultural celebrations like NAIDOC week and multicultural festivals are supported, aiming to reduce discrimination while promoting harmony within the community.

STRATEGY FOUR Advocacy and Partnerships

The City can amplify its positive impact in the community by supporting stakeholders to improve outcomes for young people. This can be achieved through leadership, collaboration, planning, capacity building, advocacy and by engaging in partnerships with stakeholders. The City has a role to play advocating on behalf of young people and the services that deliver to young people within the community. There are numerous complex issues and challenges facing young people that sit outside the core function of a local government authority. The role of the City in these areas is to give voice to and advocate on behalf of young people. These issues may include employment, education, homelessness, health, transportation, and safety.
