4. Feasibility Study

The Committee discussed the possibility of a Feasibility Study to expand the QEII Community Centre building. As advised by CGG during the Mayors Mystery bus morning tea. It is all in the system to obtain feasibility study to explore possible extension next financial year.

Cr Michael Reymond (PP) arrived at 9:30am.

5. Reports to be Received – QEII Monthly Reports and Attendance Figures – August, September and October 2022

The Committee discussed the reports and noted the following:

- Number of attendees is increasing;
- High attendance in particular for Balance Gym and the New activity Pickle Ball; and
- National Seniors Inc, after many years, has disbanded as a club.

6. General Business

6.1. Newsletter

Expanding circulation of Newsletter to various groups – Doctor Surgeries, Chamber of Commerce, Shops and Supermarkets, visitor centre. Suggestion to advertise a page with all the activities in the Midwest Times.

Action – QEII staff to contact Chamber of Commerce to display QEII Newsletter at the shops. Also to display Newsletter at Doctor Surgeries, supermarkets and the visitor centre

Action - QEII staff to exploring the option to publish QEII Program and activities 4 x month. Asking a politician if they would like to sponsor it.

The Committee expressed their opinion about the importance of the Newsletter as it is very valuable source of information for the seniors. The Committee discussed how to attract more seniors to QEII centre. The centre has 1184 registered members.

6.2. Building Maintenance

- Leaks in the building;
- Secure Gate at the Patio;
- Roof is sealed;
- Water wasn't working before the Seniors Week; and
- Flickering light in the upper hall.

6.3. Emergency Exits

The group discussed emergency exits in the upper hall. Lower hall has 4 emergency exits and Upper Hall has 2 emergency exits. CGG staff to review emergency exits.

Action – QEII staff to organise safety drill to be organised with 100 people in the Upper Hall – full drill but all attendees must be informed that it is just an exercise.

6.4. Hall Hire

Scratched floors have been noted after various events.

Action – CGG officers to ensure that the bond is charged and photos before and after are taken.

6.5. Mayors Mystery Bus Tour

Mayors mystery bus is Annual Opportunity for people to give us feedback. The Committee mentioned that recommendations should be collected throughout the entire year and we should encourage people to give us feedback straight away.

Action – QEII Newsletter to include “how to share” mechanism to give feedback – HelpDesk contact etc.

6.6. Thank you

Action: Peter Treharne and Bob Hall to thank all volunteers, QEII staff and events team for very successful Senior’s week.

7. Committee Meeting Schedule for 2023
